RE: EUROGOLD

I have been asked to give a reference for the above company and can state that they are at present carrying out one job on our behalf with a view to carrying out additional work and, to-date, the quality and service from the company has been to a good standard.

I personally have known the proprietor, Damien Brickland, for some 18+ years and have found him always to be responsive to any requests and he has carried these out in a most professional manner.
